So what should this course be about, anyway?

- Data interpretation skills (qualitative and quantitative analysis)
- Uncertainty estimation
- Statistical modeling and prediction
- Experimental design: hypothesis development, observing network design, plans for analysis and inference
- Practical application of skills/techniques